

Message from the APS Trustee - APS discretionary increase litigation

In our 6 July 2017 update we confirmed that the Court of Appeal was aiming for BA's appeal against the High Court judgment on the APS discretionary increase litigation to be heard by 15 May 2018.

The Court of Appeal has fixed BA's appeal to be heard over three days commencing on Tuesday 1st May 2018. Following the hearing, there will be an interval while the three Lord Justices write up their decisions before the Court of Appeal judgment becomes public.

As before, we will keep members updated on developments as and when we are able to do so.

Date: 11 August 2017